

MUNICIPAL ENGINEERING SERVICES

Client: The District of Squamish

The District of Squamish engaged Aplin & Martin Consultants Ltd. to act in the capacity of the Public Works Director and the Manager of Operations for a period of fourteen months. Aplin & Martin Consultants Ltd. provided two personnel to fulfill these management positions on a part time basis varying from one to three days a week.

The two personnel provided management of the Operations Department provided municipal engineering services to the District Council, and consultation with the Squamish Public and the development community.

During the assignment, a reorganization of the Public Works Department, Parks and Recreation Department, the Engineering Department and the Planning Department was undertaken in consultation with the Administrator and District Council.

The services provided included reports and presentations to Council, negotiations with Developers, preparation of a new Development Service Bylaw introduction of a Soil Removal and Deposit Bylaw, the preliminary plans for the development of the new Squamish University and the direct management of Municipal Staff.